Coaching and Teaching Philosophy

Teaching the fundamentals of basketball is a learned skill and requires study and experience. Camp for Champs will use the techniques and philosophy used to prepare Patrick Henry to a first time ever 4peat in class 3A basketball history, but at your child's pace. Camp coaches will know how to teach skills and share sound basketball knowledge with young athletes. Our Camp will have the ability to empathize, communicate and demonstrate respect for each athlete's abilities. Our ultimate goal is to prepare bodies for basketball and minds for life.
